

APPOMATTOX 150th SESQUICENTENNIAL

APRIL 8 – 12, 2015

ALL INFORMATION IS LISTED AT WWW.APPOMATTOX150TH.COM

There will be a Commemoration of the 150th anniversary of the end of the American Civil War. It was here in Appomattox on Palm Sunday, April 9, 1865 that General Robert E. Lee surrendered the Army of Northern Virginia to General Ulysses S. Grant at the McLean House located in the Appomattox Court House National Historical Park.

Over 80 Events will take place here in Appomattox and be sponsored by the Appomattox Court House National Historical Park, The Appomattox 1865 Foundation, The Museum of the Confederacy, The Appomattox Historical Society and the Carver-Price Legacy Museum.

When: April 8 – 12, 2015

Where: The events will take place all around the Town of Appomattox.

Time: The events start on Wednesday, April 8th at 9:00 a.m. and run through Sunday, April 12th and end around 5:00 p.m.

Website: All of the programs and events are listed on the website www.appomattox150th.com Please visit this website and become familiar with all of the facts so that you are aware of what is going on during this time.

Shuttle Service – There will be three different shuttle services available from Thursday, April 9th – Sunday, April 12. There will be a shuttle service running from downtown Lynchburg to the National Park and back to Lynchburg, the second shuttle service will be from two parking lots off of Route 24 that will shuttle people into the National Park and the third shuttle service will be a loop shuttle from the National Park around town and back to the National Park so that tourist may get on and off the bus and not have to move their vehicles.

What to Expect: If the weather is good we are expecting large crowds of tourist from all over the United States and many from foreign countries.

What to prepare for: If you are a business then you should prepare to stock up on your inventory. You should also make your delivery companies aware that you may need additional products delivered during this time period.